Sixty-Seventh Legislature.

SENATE.

No. 171.

STATE OF MAINE.

AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 144.

By striking out in the eighty-third line of the first section the word "Elizabeth," where it first occurs in said line, and substituting therefor the words 'South Portland,' also by striking out in said line eighty-three the words "new town of" after the word "said" and inserting in lieu thereof the words 'towns of South Portland and Cape Elizabeth.'

By substituting for section three of said bill the following :

'Section 3. The existing liabilities of the present town of Cape Elizabeth, shall be divided as follows :—The town debt shall be borne by said towns in proportion to the valuation of taxable property and estate within their

13 respective territories, as taken by the assessors in April
14 eighteen hundred and ninety-four; and shall continue to 15 pay the same proportion of the state and county taxes
16 assessed upon the present town of Cape Elizabeth, until a
17 separate valuation shall be made by the state assessors.
18 All paupers now supported or aided by the present town
19 of Cape Elizabeth, or that may hereafter become charge-
20 able as paupers, shall, after division, be chargeable to and
21 maintained and supported by the new town of Cape Eliza-
22 beth, or the town of South Portland, according as their 23 last settlement may fall within the respective territories of 24 said towns.'

By substituting for section four of said bill the following :

'Section 4. All town property, real and personal, now
27 situated within the limits of said new town of Cape Eliza-
28 beth, shall become the property of said new town, and all
29 town property real and personal now situated within the 30 limits of said town of South Portland, shall become the 31 property of said town of South Portland.'

To amend section five by striking out in the second line
33 the word "Elizabeth" where it last occurs in said line and
34 inserting in lieu thereof the words 'South Portland.'

To amend by substituting for section six the following :

'Section 6. The selectmen for the present town of Cape
37 Elizabeth shall have full power and authority, and be
38 required to call, upon petition as now provided by statutes
39 relating to calling town meetings, the first annual meeting

40 for said new town of Cape Elizabeth, and town of South
41 Portland.'

SECT. 8. All by-laws now in force in the present town
2 of Cape Elizabeth shall continue to be the by-laws of the 3 town of South Portland.

SECT. 9. This act shall take effect when approved.

STATE OF MAINE.

IN SENATE, February 28, 1895.

Laid on table to be printed on motion by Mr. WATERHOUSE of Cumberland.

KENDALL M. DUNBAR, Secretary.
