8 or investments have been made with the approval of the 9 investment committee of said corporation, which shall indi-

6 such deposits, and not be subject to any other liabilities of 7 the corporation; and for the purpose of securing the observ-

6 ownership in property, or any personal property, with said
7 corporations, and any of said courts may direct any person
8 deriving authority from them to so deposit the same.

Sect. 12. Each shareholder of this corporation shall be 2 individually responsible for all contracts, debts and engage-

Sect. 13. Such corporation shall set apart as a guaranty 2 fund no less than ten per cent of its earnings in each and

2 examiner, who shall visit it at least once in every 3 year, and as much oftener as he may deem expedient. At 4 such visits he shall have free access to its vaults, books and 5 papers, and shall thoroughly inspect and examine all the 6 affairs of said corporation, and make such inquiries as may 7 be necessary to ascertain its condition and ability to fulfill
8 all its engagements. If upon examination of said corpo-
9 ration the examiner is of the opinion that its investments are 10 not in accordance with law, or said corporation is insolvent,
11 or its condition is such as to render its further proceedings
12 hazardous to the public or to those having funds in its custody,

13 or is of the opinion that it has exceeded its powers or failed 14 to comply with any of the rules or restrictions provided by 15 law, he shall have such authority and take such action as is 16 provided for in the case of savings banks by chapter forty-17 seven of the Revised Statutes. He shall preserve in a per-

23 If no paper is published in the town where said corporation
24 is established, then it shall be published in a newspaper
25 printed in the nearest city or town. The necessary expenses

Sect. 17. This act shall take effect when approved.
