STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Joseph McGlone, Alfred Cyr and Samuel Sambles were woodsmen employed in the lumber region on the West Branch of the Penobscot River north of Millinocket. Becoming ill the town of Millinocket was called upon to care for them. These men were from the Province of New Brunswick, had never acquired a residence in the State of Maine and are now in parts unknown, so that it was impossible to obtain affidavits from them or from parties who knew them setting forth this fact.
