SEVENTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE

SENATE.

No. 406

STATE OF MAINE.

RESOLVE, in favor of Adelbert F. Williams.

Resolved, That the sum of one hundred twenty-five dollars
2 be and is hereby appropriated to be paid to Adelbert F. Wil-
3 liams, for medical services and supplies rendered destitute
4 inhabitants of Malaga Island as pauper supplies.

STATEMENT OF FACTS.

Malaga Island is on the east side of Casco bay, near Phippsburg. It has been a question for years whether it is unincorporated territory or a part of one of the towns of Sagadahoc or Cumberland and if so of what town. Many of its inhabitants are and have long been paupers. While some of them were destitute and in need of relief Dr. Adelbert F. Williams of Phippsburg, rendered necessary professional services as pauper supplies, after notice to various towns, all of which denied liability and no one of which was liable as now appears. The State has at times aided the inhabitants but has no funds available for the payment of the services first above mentioned, a reasonable compensation for which is the amount of this resolve.
