NEW DRAFT.

SEVENTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE

SENATE.

No. 489

STATE OF MAINE.

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND NINE.

AN ACT to amend chapter thirty of the Revised Statutes relating to Apothecaries and the Sale of Poisons.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. Section seven of chapter thirty of the revised
2 statutes is hereby amended by striking out in the sixth line
3 of section seven and by inserting in place thereof the word
4 'four,' also by inserting after the word "pharmacy" in the 5 eighth line thereof the words 'and has been employed in 6 such an apothecary store for at least one year,' so that said
7 section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sect. 7. Every person not already registered, entering 9 on the business of an apothecary, upon the payment of the 10 fee of ten dollars, to the secretary of said board, except

11 as hereinafter provided, shall be examined by said com-
12 missioners, and shall present to them satisfactory evidence
13 that he has been an apprentice, or employed in an apothecary
14 store where physicians' prescriptions are compounded,
15 at least four years; or has graduated from some regularly
16 incorporated medical college or college of pharmacy and 17 has been employed in such an apothecary store for at least 18 one year; and is competent for the business; the commis-
19 sioners may give him a certificate of that fact and that he 20 is authorized to engage in the business of an apothecary,
21 and such certificate must be signed by at least two com-
22 missioners. In case the result of the examination is un-23 satisfactory, and no certificate is granted, the applicant shall 24 have the right to another examination without charge, after 25 an interval of two months, and within twelve months after 26 the date of his first examination. Only one of the part-27 ners in a firm need be a registered druggist, provided, the 28 partner who compounds medicines be registered. All cer-
29 tificates issued under the provisions of this chapter shall 30 be constantly displayed in a conspicuous place, in the store
31 or shop of the persons to whom the same were issued.'

Sect. 2. Section eight of said chapter is hereby amended
2 by striking out after the word "have" in the fifth line there-
3 of the words "past the junior year in a college of pharmacy
4 or in a department of pharmacy in any incorporated col-
5 lege, or," so that said section as amended shall read as 6 follows:

‘Sect. 8. Certificates of two grades or kinds may be issued, whereof one shall declare that the holder is skilled in pharmacy as in the preceding section, and the other kind which after the examination of the applicants therefor, may be issued to such as shall not be less than eighteen years of age and who have served two full years in an apothecary store where physicians’ prescriptions are compounded, shall declare that the holder is a qualified assistant and is qualified to take charge of the business of an apothecary during the temporary absence of the registered apothecary, and the fee for such assistant’s examination shall be five dollars.’

Sect. 3. Section ten of said chapter is hereby amended by adding thereto the following words, ‘actually in charge of instead of actually engaged in, so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

‘Sect. 10. No registered apothecary shall suffer or permit the use of his name or certificate of registration in the conduct of business of pharmacy when he himself is not actually in charge of such business in the store where his certificate is displayed.’

Sect. 4. Section twelve of said chapter is hereby amended by striking out after the words “a penalty of” in the sixth line thereof the words “fifty dollars a month for the first offense, and one hundred dollars a month” and inserting in place thereof the words ‘two dollars a day for the first offense and four dollars a day.’ Said section is further

7 amended by adding thereto the following words, 'All fines
8 and forfeitures collected under this section shall be paid
9 to the treasurer of State and shall be considered funds of 10 the board of commissioners of pharmacy, to be expended
11 by them for the enforcement of laws relating to apothecaries and the sale of poisons and for expenses incurred 12 in their official work,' so that said section as amended shall 13 read as follows:

'Sect. 12. Whoever engages in or is found in charge of 16 or carrying on a business, or displays any drugs, medicines,
17 drug store fittings or furnishings, or any sign recognized 18 as peculiar to a drug store to give the appearance of an 19 apothecary store, or claims to be or represents himself to 20 be an apothecary, contrary to the provisions of this chap-
21 ter, shall be subject to a penalty of two dollars a day for 22 the first offense and four dollars a day for each and every 23 subsequent offense, whether for continuance in said busi-
24 ness or for engaging anew therein in violation of the pro-
25 visions of this chapter. The county attorney in each coun-
26 ty upon complaint made by any one of said commissioners
27 shall prosecute all violations of the provisions of this chap-
28 ter. All fines and forfeitures collected under this section
29 shall be paid to the treasurer of State and shall be con-
30 sidered funds of the board of commissioners of pharmacy,
31 to be expended by them for the enforcement of laws re-
32 lating to apothecaries and the sale of poisons, and for ex-
33 penses incurred in their official work.'

Sect. 5. Section seventeen of said chapter is hereby amended by inserting after the word "by" in the fourteenth line thereof the words 'any member of the board of commissioners of pharmacy or by,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sect. 17. Whoever sells arsenic, arsenious acid, atropia or any of its salts, chloral hydrate, chloroform, cotton root and its fluid extract, Fowler's solution, corrosive sublimate, cyanide of potassium, Donovan's solution, ergot and its fluid extract, laudanum, McMunn's elixir, morphine or any of its salts, sugar of lead, oil of savin, oil of tansy, opium, Parson's vermin exterminator, phosphorus, prussic acid, rough on rats, strychnine or any of its salts, tartar emetic, tincture of aconite, tincture of belladonna, tincture of digitalis, tincture of nux vomica, tincture of veratrum viride, crystals of carbolic acid or a strong solution of carbolic acid, without the written prescription of a physician, shall keep a record of such sale, the name and quantity of the article sold, and the name and residence of the person or persons to whom it was delivered, which record shall be made before the article is delivered, and shall at all times be open to inspection by any member of the board of commissioners of pharmacy or by the police authorities and officers of cities and towns; but no sale of cocaine or its salts shall be made except to dentists or on the prescription of a physician. Whoever neglects to keep or refuses to show to said officers such record shall be punished by fine

28 not exceeding fifty dollars. Whoever sells any of the poi-
29 sonous articles named in this section without the written
30 prescription of a physician, shall affix to the bottle, box
31 or wrapper containing the article sold a label of red paper,
32 upon which shall be printed in large letters the word "poi-
33 son," and also the word "antidote," and the name and place
34 of business of the vendor. The name of an antidote, if 35 there be any, for the poison sold, shall also be upon the 36 label. Every neglect to affix such label to such poisonous
37 article sold before the delivery thereof to the purchaser
38 shall be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars.
39 Whoever purchases poisons as aforesaid and gives a false
40 or fictitious name to the vendor shall be punished by fine
41 not exceeding fifty dollars. But nothing in this section
42 shall be construed to apply to wholesale dealers or to man-
43 ufacturing chemists in their sales to retail trade, nor to 44 the general merchant, nor to a firm or corporation in trade,
45 who may sell in unbroken packages prepared by the man-
46 ufacturers, Paris green, London purple or other poisonous
47 preparations or compounds used for the destruction of 48 bugs, beetles, insects, slugs, grubs, caterpillars or worms.
49 Upon each and every package so sold shall be printed in 50 large letters the word "poison." Every neglect to affix
51 such label with the word "poison" thereon to such poison-
52 ous article before the delivery thereof to the purchaser
53 shall be punished by fine not exceeding fifty dollars.'

Sect. 6. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith
2 are hereby repealed.
