SEVENTY-FIFTH LEGISLATURE

HOUSE

NO. 89

House of Representatives, Feb. 2, 1911.

Introduced by Mr. Strickland of Bangor, who moved its reference to the Committee on Legal Affairs. By him tabled for printing pending reference to a committee.

C. C. HARVEY, Clerk.

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND ELEVEN.

AN ACT to amend chapter three hundred and sixty-nine of the Private and Special Laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, entitled "An Act regulating the appointment of the members of the Police Force of the City of Bangor."

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. Sections five and six of chapter three hundred and sixty-nine of the private and special laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-nine are hereby amended by striking out all of said sections and inserting the following:

'Sect. 5. In the month of June annually the chief of police shall select from those members of the police force who have served at least one year continuously prior to such selection,

8 one member of the force to be a deputy chief of police, one
9 member to be inspector of police, three or more members to
10 be captains of police and three or more members to be ser-
11 geants of police, each to hold office for the following year
12 and until reappointed or relieved by the appointment of an-
13 other in his place.

‘Said appointments to be subject to confirmation by the
15 municipal officers of said city.

‘Sect. 6. The chief of police shall be elected by written
17 ballot in convention of the board of aldermen and common
18 council of the city of Bangor as provided by law and the 19 ordinances of said city.

‘Any person, who at the time of his election as chief of
21 police is a regular member of the police force of said city,
22 may at the termination of his office as chief of police resume
23 his position as a member of said force.’
