SEVENTY-SIXTH LEGISLATURE

SENATE

NO. 17

In Senate, Jan. 13, 1913.

Presented by Senator Hersey of Aroostook, and on motion by same senator, laid on the table for printing pending reference to a committee.

W. E. LAWRY, Secretary.

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND THIRTEEN.

AN ACT to amend chapter six of the Revised Statutes, relating to the regulation and conduct of Elections.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. Chapter six of the Revised Statutes is hereby 2 amended by striking out section ten, as amended by chapter
3 one hundred and thirty-five of the Public Laws of 1905, and 4 inserting in place thereof the following:

'Sect. 10. Every general ballot or ballots intended for the 6 use of all voters, which shall be printed in accordance with 7 the provisions of this chapter, shall contain the names and 8 residences, ward residences in city elections, of all candidates

9 whose nominations for any office specified in the ballot have 10 been duly made and not withdrawn in accordance herewith,
11 and the office for which they have been severally nominated
12 and shall contain no other names except that in case of elec-
13 tors of president and vice-president of the United States,
14 the names of the candidates for president and vice-president
15 may be added to the party or political designation.

‘To the name of each candidate shall be added his party or 17 political designation expressed in accordance with section
18 five. No greater number of candidates for any office, bear-19 ing the same designation, nominated otherwise than by 20 nomination papers, shall be placed upon the official ballot
21 than are to be elected.

‘If the name of a political party is used in connection with 23 some other name or term as the designation of a candidate
24 nominated by a nomination paper, the words “nomination 25 paper,” or “nom. paper,” shall be added to such political 26 designation.

‘If a candidate shall receive the nomination of more than 28 one party or more than one political designation for the same
29 office, he may, within the seventy-two hours next succeeding
30 five o’clock of the last day fixed for the filing of nomination
31 papers, by a writing delivered to the officer or board required
32 by law to prepare the official ballot, direct in what order the 33 several nominations or political designations shall be added
34 to his name upon the official ballot; and such directions shall 35 be followed by the said officer or board. If, during said

36 time, said candidate shall neglect to direct in writing as 37 aforesaid, then said officer or board shall add said nomina-
38 tions or political designations to the name of said candidate
39 upon the official ballot in such order as said officer or board
40 shall determine.

“The names of candidates for every office, except the names
42 of candidates for presidential electors, shall be arranged
43 under the designation of the office in alphabetical order ac-
44 cording to the surnames; but the names of candidates for 45 the same office but for different terms of service therein shall 46 be arranged in groups according to the length of their re-
47 spective terms. Blank spaces shall be left at the end of the 48 list of candidates for each different office, equal to the num-49 ber to be elected thereto, in which the voter may insert the 50 name of any person not printed on the ballot for whom he 51 desires to vote for such office. If the approval of a consti-
52 tutional amendment or any other question is submitted to 53 the voters, it shall be printed on the ballot after the names
54 of the candidates.

‘Ballots shall be so printed as to give each voter an oppor-
56 tunity to designate by a cross (X) in a square at the right 57 of the name and designation of each candidate, and at the 58 right of each question, his choice of candidates and his an-59 swer to such question; and upon the ballots may be printed 60 such directions as will aid the voter; for example, “vote for 61 one,” “vote for two,” “yes,” “no,” and the like.

‘The ballot shall not be less than four inches in width and

63 not less than six inches in length. Before distribution the 64 ballots shall be so folded in marked creases that their width 65 and length when folded shall be uniform. On the back and 66 outside of each ballot, when folded, shall be printed the 67 words, "Official ballot for," followed by the designation of 68 the polling place for which the ballot is prepared, the date
69 of the election and a facsimile of the signature of the sec-
70 retary of State or city clerk who has caused the ballot to be 71 printed. Except as otherwise herein provided, ballots shall 72 be printed upon clean white paper without any distinguish-
73 ing mark or figures thereon.'

Sect. 2. Said chapter six of the Revised Statutes is further
2 amended by striking out section twenty-four and inserting
3 in place thereof the following:

'Sect. 24. On receipt of his ballot the voter shall forthwith,
5 and without leaving the enclosed space, retire alone to one 6 of the voting shelves or compartments so provided and shall,
7 except in the case of voting for presidential electors, pre-
8 pare his ballot by making a cross (X) in the square at the 9 right of the name of each candidate for whom he intends 10 to vote or by inserting the name of such candidate in the 11 space provided therefor and making a cross in the square at 12 the right; and, upon a question submitted to the vote of the 13 people, by making a cross in the square at the right of the 14 answer which he intends to give.

'A voter may vote for an entire group of candidates for 16 presidential electors by making a cross (X) in the square

17 at the right of the party or political designation immediately
18 above such group. If a voter does not intend to vote for 19 any one candidate in the group, he may erase his name, and 20 the cross shall count as a vote for each of the other candi-
21 dates in such group. If the voter desires to vote for another
22 person in place of a candidate whose name he has erased,
23 he may insert his name in one of the blank spaces and make 24 a cross in the square at the right thereof. A voter who does 25 not mark for any group of candidates may vote for candi-
26 dates for electors, up to the number to be elected, by insert-27 ing names in the blank spaces at the end of the groups of 28 electors and marking a cross in the square at the right of 29 each name so inserted.'
