SEVENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE

HOUSE NO. 362

House of Representatives, Feb. 25, 1915.

Reported by Mr. Greenleaf from Special Committee on Revision of Statutes and ordered printed under joint rules.

C. C. HARVEY, Clerk.

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND FIFTEEN

AN ACT to Amend Section ninety-one of Chapter twenty-three of the Revised Statutes Relating to Guide Posts at Crossings of Ways.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section ninety-one of chapter twenty-three of the revised 2 statutes as amended by chapter twenty-seven of the public
3 laws of nineteen hundred and eleven, is hereby further 4 amended by inserting after the word "thereto" in the eighth 5 line of said section, the following sentence: 'If erected on 6 state or state aid highways, such guide posts and guide boards 7 shall be of such reasonable form, height and design as the 8 state highway commission may direct,' so that said section
9 as amended shall read as follows:

‘Sect. 91. Towns shall erect and maintain at all crossings
11 of highways, and where one public highway enters another,
12 substantial guide posts not less than eight feet high, and fas-13 ten to the upper end of each a board, on which shall be 14 plainly printed, in black letters on white ground, the name 15 of the next town on the route, and of such other place as the 16 municipal officers direct, with the number of miles thereto, 17 and a figure of a hand with the forefinger pointing thereto;
18 if erected on state or state aid highways, such guide posts
19 and guide boards shall be of such reasonable form, height 20 and design as the state highway commission may direct; and 21 for any neglect hereof towns are subject to a fine of not less 22 than ten, nor more than fifty dollars, to be recovered by 23 complaint or indictment. Judges of municipal and police 24 courts and trial justices within their respective counties shall 25 have original and concurrent jurisdiction with the superior 26 and supreme judicial courts; and of all fines provided for 27 by this section, and recovered on complaint, one-half shall 28 go to the prosecutor and one-half to the county where the 29 town committing the offense is situated.’
