SEVENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE

HOUSE

NO. 910

House of Representatives, March 23, 1915.

Reported by Mr. McCarty from Committee on Revision of Statutes and ordered printed under joint rules.

C. C. HARVEY, Clerk.

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE
HUNDRED AND FIFTEEN

AN ACT to Amend Section Nine of Chapter Sixty-five of the Revised Statutes Relating to Transcripts of Examinations or Testimony Taken in the Probate Courts.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section nine of chapter sixty-five of the revised statutes is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

'Sect. 9. In cases where the person testifying or submitting to examination is required by law to sign his testimony or examination, the transcript made as provided in the preceding section shall be read to the person whose testimony or examination it is, at a time and place to be appointed by the judge, unless such person or his counsel in writing waives such reading, and if it is found to be accur-

10 ate or if it contains errors or mistakes or alleged errors or
11 mistakes, and such errors or mistakes are either corrected
12 or the proceedings had in relation to the same as hereinafter
13 provided, such transcript shall be signed by the person
14 whose testimony or examination it is. When the reading
15 of a transcript is waived as provided by this section, such 16 transcript shall be deemed correct. In all other cases the 17 transcript need not be signed but shall be deemed to be 18 complete and correct without signing and shall have the 19 same effect as if signed.'
