SEVENTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE

SENATE

NO. 285

In Senate, March 6, 1915.

Ordered, That five hundred copies be printed and that the same be referred to the Committee on Legal Affairs.

Committee on Reference.

Presented by Mr. Weld of Penobscot.

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE
HUNDRED AND FIFTEEN

AN ACT to Amend Section 16 of Chapter Two Hundred Twenty-one of the Public Laws of 1913, relating to primary elections.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 16 of Chapter two hundred and twenty-one of the 2 Public Laws of 1913, is hereby amended by inserting after 3 the word "tabulated" in the fourth line of said section the 4 words 'and forthwith thereafter have forwarded to each
5 candidate a copy of said tabulations of his precinct or dis-
6 trict'; by striking out the word "seven" in the eleventh line
7 and substituting therefor the word 'fourteen'; and by strik-
8 ing out the word "seven" in the fourteenth line of said sec-

9 tion and substituting therefor the word 'fourteen,' so that 10 said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sect. 16. The Governor and Council by the first Tuesday
12 of July in each year in which a primary election is held
13 hereunder, shall open and compare the votes so returned
14 hereunder, and have the same tabulated, and forthwith
15 thereafter have forwarded to each candidate a copy of said
16 tabulations of his precinct or district, and may receive tes-
17 timony on oath to prove that the return from any city, town
18 or plantation does not agree with the record of the vote of 19 said city, town or plantation, in the number of votes, or the 20 names of the persons voted for, and to prove which of them
21 is correct; and the return, when found to be erroneous, may 22 may be corrected by the record. No such correction can be 23 made without application within fourteen days after the re-
24 turns are opened and tabulated, stating the error alleged,
25 nor without reasonable notice thereof given to the person
26 affected by such correction, and during said fourteen days
27 any person voted for may personally, and by or with coun-
28 sel, examine said returns in the presence of the Governor
29 and Council, or either of them, or any member of the Coun-
30 cil, or the Secretary of State. The person having the high-31 est number of votes for nomination to any office shall be 32 deemed to have been nominated by his political party for 33 that office, provided, that when a tie shall exist between two 34 or more persons for the same nomination by reason of said
35 two or more persons having an equal and the highest number
36 of votes for nomination by one party to one and the same

37 office, the Secretary of State shall give notice to the several 38 persons so having the highest and equal number of votes
39 to attend at the office of the Secretary of State at a time to 40 be appointed by said Secretary, who shall then and there pro-
41 ceed publicly to decide by lot which of the persons so having 42 an equal number of votes shall be declared nominated by his 43 party with like effect as if there had been no such tie. To 44 ascertain what persons have received the highest number
45 of votes, the Governor and Council shall count and declare 46 for any person all votes appearing by said returns to have 47 been intentionally cast for him, although his name upon the 48 return is misspelled or written with only the initial or ini-
49 tials of his christian name or names, or with wrong initials
50 or otherwise as the case may be; and they may hear testi-
51 mony on oath, in relation to such returns, in order to get at 52 the intention of the voters and shall decide accordingly.
53 When a return is defective by reason of any informality, an 54 attested copy of the record may be substituted therefor.

The Secretary of State shall enter in a register of nomina-56 tions, to be kept by him for the purpose, the nominations for 57 each party so ascertained, and shall forthwith notify by reg-
58 istered mail each person who is so nominated.'
