STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND
NINE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-ONE

AN ACT Providing a Labor Lien on Manufactured Lumber.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Chapter ninety-six, section forty-seven of the revised statutes, is hereby amended by striking out the words "or lumber" in the second line of said section and inserting in place thereof the words 'lumber or manufactured lumber,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sect. 47. Whoever labors at cutting, hauling, rafting or driving logs, lumber or manufactured lumber, or at cooking for persons engaged in such labor, or in shoeing horses or oxen, or repairing property while thus employed, has a lien on the logs and lumber for the amount due for his personal

6 services and the services performed by his team, which takes
7 precedence of all other claims except liens reserved to the 8 state; whoever both shores and runs logs by himself, his
9 servants or agents, has a lien thereon for the price of such
10 shoring and running; such liens continue for sixty days after
11 the logs or lumber arrive at the place of destination for sale
12 or manufacture, and may be enforced by attachment.'
