AN ACT to Annex a Certain Gore of Land to the Town of Westfield.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

All of a certain gore of land, in the county of Aroostook
2 hereinafter described is hereby annexed to the town of 3 Westfield in said county of Aroostook. Commencing at 4 the southwest corner of the present town of Westfield,
5 thence westerly along the north line of E Plantation to the 6 east line of township ten, range three; thence, northerly, 7 along the east line of said township ten, range three, to the 8 southwest corner of the town of Presque Isle; thence, east-9 erly, along the south line of the town of Presque Isle to the 10 west line of the town of Westfield as now existing; thence,
11 southerly, along the present west line of the town of West-
12 field to the place of commencing.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The present town of Westfield is bounded on the south by Plantation E and on the north by the town of Presque Isle. The west line of Plantation E and the town of Presque Isle is about one-half mile west of the west line of Westfield. The east line of the town west of the town of Westfield is about one-half mile west of the west line of Westfield. This leaves the gore of land described above. It was always supposed that this gore of land was a part of the town of Westfield until the old surveys were examined. At present and for several years parties owning land in gore pay taxes in town of Westfield.
