AN ACT to Amend Public Laws of 1919 Chapter Two Hundred and Thirty-eight as Amended by Chapter Two Hundred and Twenty-two of the Public Laws of 1921.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Amending section twenty-two of public laws of 1919
2 chapter two hundred and thirty-eight as amended by chap-
3 ter two hundred and twenty-two of the public laws of 1921
4 by adding after the word "act" in the last line of said
5 section the following paragraph:

'Whenever an employee is injured under circumstances
2 entitling him to compensation, if it be established that the 3 injured employee was of such age and experience when

4 injured that, under natural conditions, his wages would be 5 expected to increase, that fact may be considered in deter-
6 mining his weekly wages,' so that said section as amended
7 shall read as follows:

'Sect. 22. No savings or insurance of the injured em-
2 ployee independent of this act, shall be taken into con-
3 sideration in determining the compensation to be paid here-
4 under, nor shall benefits derived from any other source
5 than the employer be considered in fixing the compensation
6 under this act. Whenever an employee is injured under 7 circumstances entitling him to compensation, if it be estab-
8 lished that the injured employee was of such age and ex-9 perience when injured that, under natural conditions, his 10 wages would be expected to increase, that fact may be 11 considered in determining his weekly wages.'
