EIGHTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE

HOUSE

179

House of Representatives, Feb. 18, 1925.

Tabled pending passage by Mr. Dudley and 1000 copies ordered printed.

CLYDE R. CHAPMAN, Clerk.

Presented by Mr. Campbell of Kingman.

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE

Ordered, the senate concurring, that a joint select committee of seven on the part of the house, with such as the senate may join, be appointed to investigate the department of education of the state of Maine, with particular attention to the expenses of the state commissioner of education incurred in traveling within and without the state of Maine, the purposes of such traveling, the expenses of others connected with the same department for similar travel and the purposes thereof, to ascertain if, in any case, or cases, wherein the legislature has made an appropriation to and for a specific purpose, there has been any diversion of any part of such appropriation therefrom to any other purpose or object, to ascertain what changes, if any, are advisable

14 under the existing laws in this department; such investi-
15 gation shall cover such period of time as the committee
16 deems advisable. Full authority and power is hereby given
17 to said committee to summon witnesses to appear before
18 it, to cause such to produce books, papers, vouchers and
19 documents, and to give evidence pertaining to the inquiry
20 with which the committee is charged, to employ counsel,
21 an auditor or auditors and a stenographer for the purposes
22 of said investigation, and report its findings and recom-
23 mendations on or before March tenth, nineteen hundred
24 and twenty-five.
