NEW DRAFT

EIGHTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE

H. P. No. 878

H. D. No. 208

House of Representatives, Feb. 24, 1925.

Reported by Mr. Flint from Committee on Inland Fisheries and Game and ordered printed under joint rules.

CLYDE R. CHAPMAN, Clerk.

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE

AN ACT Closing Heald Brook and Alder Brook, in Alder Brook Township and in Soldier Town, so-called, in Somerset County, to All Fishing Except with Artificial Flies, and to Establish a Daily Limit of Five Pounds of Fish Therein.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to fish for, take, catch or kill any kind of fish at any time in Heald brook or in Alder brook, which brooks are situated in Soldier town, so-called, and in Alder Brook township, so-called, in the county of Somerset, except in the ordinary way of casting with unbaited artificial flies, or fly fishing, so-called.

It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any kind of fish taken in violation of any provision of this section.

Sect. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to take, catch and kill in any one day more than five pounds of fish in all in either of said brooks.

It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession any kind of fish taken in violation of any provision of this section.

Sect. 3. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall be subject to a penalty of not less than ten nor more than thirty dollars and costs for each offense and a further penalty of one dollar for each fish taken, caught, killed or had in possession in violation of any provision of this act.

Sect. 4. Trial justices, police and municipal courts within their counties shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme judicial court and superior courts in all prosecutions arising under this act.
