STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE

AN ACT Relating to Police Regulations at Stations.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section nine, chapter fifty-seven, of the revised statutes
2 of Maine, revision of nineteen hundred and sixteen, now
3 reading: "No person shall loiter or remain, without right,
4 within any car, or station-house of a railroad corporation
5 or steamboat, or upon the platform or grounds adjoining 6 such station, after being requested to leave the same by 7 any railroad officer, or officer or agent of such steamboat.
8 Whoever violates this section forfeits not less than two, nor 9 more than ten dollars, to be recovered on complaint." is

10 hereby stricken out and the following substituted therefor:

11 'No person shall loiter or remain, without right, within 12 any car, or station-house of a railroad corporation or steam-
13 boat, or upon the platform or grounds adjoining such sta-
14 tion, after being requested to leave the same by any rail-
15 road officer, or officer or agent of such steamboat, and no
16 person or driver or owner of any automobile or other vehi-
17 cle shall solicit passengers in any station or on the station
18 grounds or wharves of any railroad corporation or steam-
19 boat corporation in competition with such railroad corpora-
20 tion or steamboat corporation, without a written permit
21 signed by an officer of such corporation authorized to issue
22 the same. Whoever violates this section shall be punished
23 by a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars.'
