STATEMENT OF FACTS

The National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws consists of three to five members, from each of the several states and jurisdictions of the United States. The present Commissioners from Maine are Hon. P. H. Gillin of Bangor, Harold H. Murchie of Calais and Harry L. Cram of Portland.

The National Conference meets annually, and very many of the uniform laws which the Conference have worked out have been adopted by many of the states of the Union, five already having been adopted by this state. The resolve itself explains fully the purposes of the appropriation.
