IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE
HUNDRED AND TWENTY-SEVEN

Ordered, the House concurring, that a committee composed of two senators appointed by the president of the senate, three members of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house, representing employees and employers subject to the workmen's compensation act and the insurance carriers doing business in the state of Maine, is hereby authorized and directed to make a full investigation of all evidence and phases of the operation during the last ten years, of the workmen's compensation law of this state, and all elements and phases of the cost of workmen's compensation insurance in this state; and 12 make full report in writing to the governor on or before

13 October 1, 1928.

Such committee is hereby given full power to summons
2 witnesses and require the production of papers and docu-
3 ments and records, such witnesses to receive the same at-
4 tendance fees as obtains in the supreme judicial court.

Such committee is to serve without pay other than actual 2 expenses and is authorized to employ at the expense of the 3 state all necessary expert or other assistance.

To enable such committee to perform its duties the gov-
2 ernor and council are authorized to pay the expenses of
3 this investigation and report, out of any moneys available
4 to the governor and council therefor.
