	to	to
	June 30, 1928	June 30, 1929
For a Nurses' Home	$100,000.00	$35,000.00

STATEMENT OF FACTS

This building to accommodate sixty-five female nurses and attendants. These nurses and attendants now occupy an entire building on the male side, which was formerly used for fifty convalescent patients, and is known as the Male Pavilion. This building is now urgently needed for patients, and, if available, would relieve the overcrowding in the men's department.
