AN ACT Authorizing Officials in Charge of Penal or Correctional Institutions to Institute a System of Compensation.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

The officials in charge of any penal or correctional institution are authorized to institute a system of compensation out of any funds coming within their control, provided, however, that this shall not occasion any overdraft in their funds and provided further that such system shall first be approved by and its continuance shall be subject to the approval of the governor and council.
