STATEMENT OF FACTS

In 1913 Phineas Stymest, a Canadian, came to Linneus and married a Linneus girl, aged 13 years, and thereafterward lived in several towns of Aroostook, but in none long enough to gain a residence. He has never been naturalized.

In 1926 he settled in Guilford, with a family of six children, and received aid from that town for the first time in the fall of 1927.

Stymest, his wife and five children, are being in part supported by the town of Guilford, and the State, through the proper committee of the Governor's Council has paid one-fifth of the bill of Guilford for pauper supplies furnished to Jan. 26, 1929, the balance due Guilford being $441.85.
