STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-NINE

AN ACT Relative to Highways Through Towns of Less Than Five Thousand Inhabitants.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section twelve of chapter twenty-five of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out in the third line thereof after the word "than" the words "twenty-five hundred" and inserting in place thereof the words 'five thousand,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Sect. 12. No funds for construction derived from any bond issue shall be expended on any highway within the compact portions of any municipality, except in municipalities of less than five thousand inhabitants, such compact portions to be determined by the commission. All state highways within such compact portions shall be maintained in good repair by the municipality wherein the same are located at the expense of the municipality and whenever any municipality shall neglect so to maintain within fourteen days after notice given its municipal officers by the commission, the commission may proceed to make necessary repairs to such way, which shall be paid for by the state and the cost thereof shall be collected and paid as provided in section twenty-four; and the amounts so collected from such municipalities shall be added to the fund for maintenance and administration. The commission may in respect thereto grant such municipalities such financial assistance as it deems advisable.'
