House Document

No. 726

H. P. 1672 House of Representatives, March 22, 1929.

Reported by Mr. MacKinnon from Committee on Inland Fisheries and Game and laid on table to be printed under joint rules.

CLYDE R. CHAPMAN, Clerk.

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-NINE

AN ACT to Establish a Game Sanctuary in the Town of Standish, in the County of Cumberland.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. No person shall, except as herein provided, at 2 any time, hunt, pursue, shoot at, molest or kill any wild
3 animal or any game or wild bird within the following de-4 scribed territory situated in the town of Standish, in the 5 county of Cumberland: beginning at Standish village, thence 6 extending northeasterly towards Sebago lake to Moody road,
7 so-called; thence along Moody road to the Trail road, so-
8 called, leading from Sebago lake to East Sebago village,

9 thence along said Trail road to the Maine Central railroad
10 crossing at Richville, thence northwesterly by said railroad
11 to Steep Falls, thence by the Middle road over Oak hill,
12 so-called, past the White place, so-called, and the residence
13 of John Rand to Standish village, except the residences
14 therein and so much of the territory as is used for agri-
15 cultural purposes.

Sect. 2. It shall also be unlawful for any person to have 2 in possession at any time any wild bird or wild animal taken
3 in violation of any provision of this act.

Sect. 3. The provisions of this act shall not prohibit any 2 person residing within the limits of the above described 3 sanctuary from shooting at or destroying any wild bird or 4 any wild animal when found destroying his property, nor 5 shall it be construed to prohibit the trapping of fur-bearing 6 animals within the above described sanctuary in accordance 7 with the general laws of the state.

Sect. 4. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall 2 be subject to a penalty of not less than ten nor more than 3 three hundred dollars and costs for each offense or impris-
4 onment for sixty days, or both said fine and imprisonment.
