STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-ONE

AN ACT Relating to a Road in the Town of Ludlow.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. All the rights, liabilities and obligations to construct, reconstruct, repair and maintain a certain road about one-half mile in length, extending from the line between Hammond Plantation and the town of Ludlow in a southerly direction across two lots in the town of Ludlow to the Houlton line, is hereby transferred from the town of Ludlow to Hammond Plantation. On and after the taking effect of this act, Hammond Plantation shall be liable for the construction, reconstruction, repair and maintenance of said road, and be liable for defects therein as though said road was located within the limits of Hammond Plantation.

Sect. 2. This act shall take effect when approved by the legal voters of the town of Ludlow and Hammond Plantation at legally called town meetings held prior to July first, 1932, and only after the payment by the town of Ludlow to Hammond Plantation of the sum of five hundred dollars ($500) payable two hundred fifty dollars ($250) before June 30, 1932, and two hundred fifty dollars ($250) before June 30, 1933.
