It shall be his duty to be vigilant and active in causing the laws of the state, and ordinances and regulations of the city to be executed and enforced, to exercise a general supervision over the conduct of all administrative and subordinate officers. He shall from time to time communicate to the city council such information, and recommend such measures, as the interests of the city may require. The assessors elected as above provided shall exercise the same powers and be subject to the same duties and liabilities that similar officers of the several towns and cities in the state may exercise, and may now or hereafter be subject to under the laws of the state. The assessors may appoint one assistant assessor in each ward, and one additional assistant assessor in each ward if the city council shall so direct, whose duty it shall be to furnish the assessors with all the necessary information relative to persons and property taxable. The compensation of such assistant assessors shall be fixed by the city council but such assistant assessors shall hold office during the pleasure of the assessors. The amount of said tax, when raised, shall be set aside as a special fund to be expended by said commission for the purposes specified in this charter; provided, however, that one per cent of the amount of the above tax, shall be reserved by the city treasurer each year to cover any uncollected portion of this tax and carried to the credit of the account known as overlayings and abatements.

K. L. The members of the city council shall be and constitute the recreation commission of the city of Portland and they shall have all the power and authority and be subject to the same duties and liabilities as are now possessed by the recreation commission of the city of Portland.

Funds for the purpose of carrying out the duties and work of said recreation commission shall be supplied in the same way and to the same amount as are now provided and supplied, or may be fixed hereafter.

Sect. 7. No money shall be paid out of the city treasury except on orders drawn and signed by the mayor, designating the fund or appropriation from which said orders are to be paid, nor unless the same shall be first granted or appropriated therefor, by the city council; and the city council shall secure a prompt and just accountability by requiring bonds with sufficient penalty and surety or sureties, from all persons entrusted with the receipt, custody or disbursement of money; they shall have the care and superintendence of the city buildings and the custody and management of all city property, with power to let or sell what may be legally let or sold, and to purchase and take in the name of the city such real and personal property in addition to that now held, as the city council may find necessary for municipal purposes; and shall as often as once a year cause to be published for the information of the inhabitants, a particular account of receipts and expenditures and a schedule of city property.

Sect. 8. The city council shall have exclusive authority to lay out, widen or otherwise alter, or discontinue any and all streets or public ways in the city of Portland, without petition therefor, and as far as extreme low water mark; and to estimate all damage sustained by the owners of land taken for that purpose; but all locations below high water mark shall be subject to the provisions of the laws relating to the commissioners of Portland harbor. A standing committee of the city council shall be appointed, to be called the committee on new streets, whose duty it shall be to lay out, alter, widen or discontinue any street or way in said city, first giving notice of the time and place of their proceedings to all parties interested, by an advertisement in two daily papers printed in Portland, for one week at least previous to the time appointed. The committee shall first hear all parties interested, and then determine and adjudge whether the public convenience requires such street or way to be laid out, altered or discontinued; and shall make a written return of their proceedings, signed by a majority of them, containing the bounds and descriptions of the street or way, if laid out or altered, and the names of the owners of the land taken, when known, and the damages allowed therefor; the return shall be filed in the city clerk's office at least seven days previous to its acceptance by the city council. The street or way shall not be altered or established until the report is accepted by the city council, and the report shall not be altered or amended before its acceptance. A street or way shall not be discontinued by the city council, excepting upon the report of said committee. The committee shall estimate and report the damages sustained by the owners of the lands adjoining that portion of the street or way which is so discontinued; their report shall be filed with the city clerk seven days at least before its acceptance. Any person aggrieved by the decision or judgment of the city council in establishing, altering, or discontinuing streets, may, so far as relates to damages, appeal therefrom to the next court having jurisdiction thereof in the county of Cumberland, which court shall determine the same by a committee of reference under a rule of court, if the parties agree, or by a verdict of its jury, and shall render judgment, and issue execution for the damages recovered, with costs to the party prevailing in the appeal. Such appeal shall be made to the term of the said court, which shall first be holden in the county of Cumberland more than thirty days from and after the day the street is finally established, altered or discontinued, excluding the day of commencement of the session of said court. The appellants shall serve written notice of such appeal upon the mayor or city clerk, fourteen days at least before the session of the court, and shall at the first term file a complaint setting forth substantially the facts of the case. On the trial, exceptions may be taken to the rulings of the court, as in other cases. Co-tenants who are appellants, shall join in their appeal or shall not recover their costs. If a street or way is discontinued before the damages are paid or recovered for the land taken, the land owner shall not be entitled to recover such damages, but the committee in their report discontinuing the same shall estimate and include all the damages sustained by the land owner, including those caused by the original location of the streets, and in such cases, if an appeal has been regularly taken, the appellant shall recover his costs. The city shall not be compelled to construct or open any street or way thus hereafter established, until in the opinion of the city council the public good requires it to be done; nor shall the city interfere with the possession of the land so taken by removing therefrom materials, or otherwise, until they decide to open and construct said street, provided that if any street or way is not constructed within two years, after the laying out of such street or way, the proceedings are void. The city council may regulate the height and width of sidewalks in any public square, places, streets, lanes or alleys in said city; and may authorize posts and trees and other objects permitted by law, to be placed along the edge of said sidewalks. Nor shall the city be answerable for damages occasioned by telegraph poles and wires erected in its streets.

Sect. 9. The mayor, or some person by him authorized, may on such terms and conditions as he may think proper, authorize and empower any person or corporation to place in any street, for such time as may be necessary, any materials for making or repairing any street, sidewalk, crosswalk, bridge, watercourse or drain, or for erecting, repairing, or finishing any building or fences, or for laying or repairing gas or water pipes or conduits, provided that not more than one-half of the width of the street shall be so occupied. Any such material so placed by virtue of any license obtained as aforesaid, shall not be considered an incumbrance or nuisance in such street; and the city shall not be liable to any person for any damages occasioned by such materials.

Sect. 10. The city shall remain into nine wards unless and until the city council shall change the number thereof as hereinafter provided; (Immediately after the first election of city officials after this charter is adopted, a commission of three members, consisting of the mayor, one member selected by the city council and a third selected by these two, shall at once proceed to alter said in such a manner as to preserve as nearly as maybe, an equal number of voters in each ward with authority to change the number of wards if the commission, consider that the best way; and such change shall be passed upon by the voters at the next annual election. Sect. 30. Each member of the city council shall be entitled to receive as compensation for the discharge of his duties, the sum of five hundred dollars per annum, payable quarterly, and he shall not be eligible while a member of the council, to any other office of profit or emolument, the salary of which is payable by the city. For failure on the part of any member of the city council to attend any stated or other duly called meeting of the city council or of the municipal officers, there shall be deducted from his compensation the sum of ten dollars; unless such failure to attend is caused by accident or illness, in which case the certificate of a duly registered physician filed with the city clerk not more than twenty-four hours after such meeting shall be a sufficient excuse for such absence; and all departments, boards, officers and committees, acting under the authority of the city, and entrusted with the expenditure of public money, shall expend the same for no other purpose than that for which it is appropriated; and shall be accountable therefor to the city, in such manner as the city council may direct.

Sect. 31. The treasurer of the city of Portland shall also be the collector for said city with all the powers of collectors of taxes under the laws of this state. He shall be styled "treasurer and collector," and shall give but one bond for the faithful performance of his duties; said bond to be approved by the mayor and city council; and may appoint assistants and deputies as provided by law. All warrants directed to him by the assessors and municipal officers shall run to him and his successors in office, and shall be in the form prescribed by law, changing such parts only as by this act are required to be changed. The method of keeping, vouching and settling his accounts shall be subject to such rules and regulations as the city council may establish. Said treasurer and collector shall collect all such uncollected taxes and assessments in whatever year assessed, as may be collected during his term of office; and at the expiration of said term, his powers as collector shall wholly cease; all sales, distresses, and all other acts and proceedings, lawfully commenced by him as such treasurer and collector, may be effectually continued and completed by his successor in office as though done by himself; and all unreturned warrants, which would otherwise be returnable to him, shall be returned to his successor in office.

Sect. 32. The original location of all streets and ways in said city shall, once in ten years, or oftener, be ascertained by the commissioner of public works, under the direction of the city council, as accurately as practicable, the location of different streets being ascertained by him from time to time, when expedient. He shall make a written report of his doings to the committee on new streets, which shall give twenty days' notice, by advertisement in two or more public papers in the city of the time and place at which it will act upon said report. Any person may appear and object to the report, and after a full hearing of all parties interested, the committee may accept, alter, or amend the report as it shall think right, and shall report their proceedings to the city council, who shall thereupon determine the lines for such streets and ways in said city according to the original location thereof; and shall order the same to be designated anew by fixed and permanent boundaries, as and for the original boundaries; and a record of the location thereof to be made upon the city records, and a copy of the last record of such proceedings respecting any street, with evidence of the location of the boundaries therein designated, shall in all judicial proceedings, be prima facie evidence of the place of the original location of said street.

Sect. 33. The mayor and city council of said city may on public occasions, by their order, forbid the passing, temporarily, of horses, carriages or other vehicles, over or through such streets or ways in said city, as they may deem expedient. No existing wharf in Portland harbor shall be extended into the harbor a greater distance below low water mark than the same now exists, and hereafter no such new wharf or any part thereof shall be extended below low water mark into the harbor, without in either case the written assent of the mayor and city council. No wharf or incumbrance shall hereafter be erected or extended into said harbor beyond the harbor commissioner's line.

Sect. 34. No existing act of the legislature, general or special, pertaining to the powers and duties of the city of Portland and its municipal officers, with respect to drains and sewers and the construction and maintenance of sidewalks and footways and assessment of the owners of adjacent lots for a proportional part of the cost thereof, shall be by this charter, in any wise affected or modified except as in this charter specifically provided.

Sect. 35. The superintending school committee shall have the powers and perform the duties appertaining to the care and management of the public schools of said city now conferred and imposed upon superintending school committees by law, except as otherwise provided in this charter.

The superintending school committee shall annually, as soon after the organization of their board as practicable, furnish to the city council a statement in detail as a budget, of the several sums which they estimate will be required during the ensuing municipal year for the support of public schools. Nothing in this charter or general law contained shall impair the right, which is hereby granted, for the city council to alter or amend any budget so presented, and make its appropriation accordingly, provided, however, that the total appropriation shall not be less than that required by section sixteen of chapter sixteen of the revised statutes of Maine and amendments thereof, which may have been heretofore or which may hereafter be made thereto, and that the portion of any such appropriation applicable to salaries of superintendent and teachers, shall not, without the consent of said superintending school committee, be reduced below the amounts specified therefor in the preceding annual school appropriation of the city council.

Sect. 36. The commissioner of public works, except as otherwise provided in this charter, shall continue to be vested with all the authority now exercised by and shall perform all duties now incumbent upon said commissioner as provided by law.

Sect. 37. The auditor shall examine all payrolls, bills and other claims and demands against the city, and shall issue no warrant for payment until he finds that the claim is in proper form, correctly computed, duly certified and legally due and payable.

The auditor may require any claimant to make oath to the validity of his claim, may investigate any claim, and for such purpose or purposes may examine witnesses under oath.

Sect. 38. The city council shall require a bond with sufficient surety or sureties, satisfactory to the city council, from all persons trusted with the collection, custody or disbursement of any of the public moneys; and may require such bond from such other officials as it may deem advisable; the premium charges for said bonds to be paid by the city.

Sec. 39. The assessors of the city shall assess annually a tax of one mill on the dollar upon all estates and property subject to taxation in said city to be taken at the last regular valuation. The amount of said tax when raised shall be appropriated as a special fund and expended by the park and recreation commissions for the duties and work prescribed for said park and recreation commissions by the laws of this state and by this charter; provided, however, that in lieu of the amount now provided by law to be expended by said recreation commission for its purposes, there shall be set aside and expended by said park and recreation commissions for said purposes ten per centum of the aforesaid fund; and provided further, that one per centum of the amount of said mill tax shall be reserved by the city treasurer to cover any uncollected portion of said tax and carried to the credit of the account known as overlayings and abatements.

Sect. 40. The purchasing agent shall purchase all supplies for the city and for the several officers and boards thereof, excepting for supplies for the city schools, which school supplies he shall purchase only upon requisition by the superintending school committee.

The purchasing agent shall see to the delivery of supplies to each officer and department to whom they belong, and take and file receipts therefor. He shall conduct all sales of property belonging to the city which are unfit or unnecessary for the city's use, but only after such sale has been authorized by the city council, and subject to such restrictions as the city council may by ordinance provide.

Sect. 41. Money may be borrowed, within the limits fixed by the constitution and statutes of the state now or hereafter applying to said Portland, by the issue and sale of bonds or notes pledged on the credit of the city, the proceeds to be used for the payment of indebtedness of the city contracted for the acquisition of land, the construction and equipment of buildings and other permanent public improvements, and the payment or refunding of bonds, notes, and certificates of indebtedness previously issued. No order providing for the issue of bonds shall be passed without public notice given by posting notice of the same in two public places in the city of Portland, and publishing said notice in at least two daily newspapers published in said Portland at least two weeks before final action by the city council, and the approval of seven-ninths of all the members of the city council. Every issue of bonds shall be payable within a fixed term of years; if said bonds are issued in payment of indebtedness incurred for a permanent improvement the term of such bonds shall not exceed the estimated period of utility of said improvement but the declaration of the city council embodied in the order authorizing the issue shall be a conclusive determination of the estimated period of utility thereof; and the term within which all bonds shall be made payable shall in no case exceed thirty years. Bonds issued after the adoption of this charter shall be made payable in equal, annual, serial installments as pertains to principal, and interest shall be made payable semi-annually. Every order for the issue of bonds shall provide for a tax levy for each year of an amount necessary to meet the payment of the annual, serial installment of principal and interest; and such amounts shall be included in the tax levy for each year until the debt is extinguished; provided, however, that bonds issued to refund any indebtedness of the city of Portland existing prior to September tenth, nineteen hundred and twenty-three, or bonds issued to refund such bonds shall not be subject to the aforesaid requirement of being made payable in equal, annual, serial installments.

Sect. 42. Money may be borrowed in anticipation of receipts from taxes during any fiscal year but the aggregate amount of such loans outstanding at any one time shall not exceed eighty per cent of the revenue received from taxes during the preceding fiscal year. All such loans shall be paid within the year out of receipts from taxes for the fiscal year in which said loans are made. Money may be borrowed in anticipation of money to be received from the sale of bonds to be issued, in case such bond issue has been authorized; all such loans shall be paid within one year and are subject to the provisions of laws of the State of Maine in relation thereto. This section shall not limit in any way the power granted to towns and cities to borrow money as contained in chapter four, section sixty-two of the revised statutes and acts amendatory thereof and additional thereto.

Sect. 43. Until the bonded indebtedness of the city of Portland in force at the time of the adoption of this charter together with any renewals thereof is fully paid, the city council shall raise and set apart each year for a sinking fund a sum equal to one and one-half per cent of the total amount of appropriations for that year. The sinking fund shall be applied only to the payment of that bonded indebtedness of the city, the payment of which has not been provided for by payments in serial installments.

The sinking fund shall be invested as provided by the revised statutes of the State of Maine and all acts in addition thereto and in amendment thereof.

Sect. 44. All public utility franchises, hereinafter granted, and all renewals, amendments, and extensions thereof shall be granted or made only by a seven-eighths vote of the voting member of the council. No franchise and no renewal or amendment thereof shall be granted or made within three months after the application therefor is filed with the city clerk nor within thirty days after the publication in full of the proposed franchise in its final form, nor until a public hearing has been held thereon. No public utility franchise shall be transferable except with the approval of the city council.

All orders providing for grants, renewals, amendments or extensions of public utility franchises shall retain to the city the following rights:

(a) To repeal the same by order at any time for non-use, or for failure to begin construction within the time prescribed, or for failure to otherwise comply with the terms prescribed;

(b) To require proper and adequate extension of plant and service, and the maintenance of the plant and fixtures at the highest practicable standard of efficiency;

(c) To establish reasonable standards of service and quality of products and prevent unjust discrimination in service or rates;

(d) To impose such other regulations as may be conducive to the safety, welfare, and accommodation of the public.

(e) Nothing contained in this section is intended to repeal, or shall be construed as repealing, the whole or any part of any existing statute, and all the rights and duties herein mentioned shall be exercised and performed in accordance with all the applicable provisions of chapter fifty-five of the revised statutes, and all acts amendatory thereof or additional thereto.

Sect. 44. The board of overseers of the poor as now constituted is hereby abolished as of the second Monday of December, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, or as soon thereafter as the city council provided for in this charter shall be elected and qualified and the terms of office of the present members of said board shall then terminate.

Sect. 45. All ordinances in force at the time when this charter takes effect, not inconsistent with the provisions of this charter, shall continue in force until amended or repealed.

All rules and regulations of the municipal officers of the city of Portland in force at the time when this charter takes effect, not inconsistent with the provisions hereof, shall continue in force until amended or repealed.

The powers and duties of any committee of the city council or of the board of aldermen of the city of Portland heretofore conferred or prescribed by statute, may by ordinance be conferred upon or prescribed for any committee of the city council.

All rights, actions, proceedings, prosecutions and contracts of the city or any of its departments, pending or unexecuted when this charter goes into effect, and not inconsistent therewith, shall be enforced, continued or completed in all respects as though begun or executed hereunder.

Sect. 46. Nothing in this act shall be construed as repealing or amending any law of the state, or ordinance of the city of Portland relative to the appointment, term of office, removal, retirement or pension of the members of the police department, the fire department and of the electrical department of the city of Portland, except so far as relates to the appointment, removal and term of office of the chief of the fire department, chief of the police department, appointment and removal of the city electrician and the appointment of the deputy and district chiefs of the fire department.

The passage and acceptance of this act shall not, except as specifically provided therein, affect the term of office of such officers, trustees, members of commissions, or departments, as may be holding office, with a definite term of years fixed by statute, at the time this charter takes effect, but such officers, trustees, members of commissions, or departments, shall complete the term of office to which they have been elected or appointed, subject to removal by the mayor, with the consent of the city council, for cause.

Sect. 47. No mayor, no member of the city council, no member of the school committee, no subordinate city officer, no member of any board or commission charged with the expenditure of any money appropriated by the city council or belonging to the city, no officer or employee of the city, elected or appointed, shall be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract entered into by or in behalf of the city of Portland for work or material, or the purchase thereof, to be furnished to or performed for the city, and all contracts made in violation hereof are void and the city treasurer is expressly forbidden to pay any money out of the city treasury on account of any such contract. No such officer or employee, except a policeman or fireman, shall accept or receive from any person, firm or corporation acting under a franchise or license from the city, any frank, free pass, free ticket, or free service, or accept directly or indirectly, from any such person, firm or corporation, any service upon terms more favorable than those granted to the public generally. This provision shall not apply, however, to any free service now or hereafter provided for by contract, franchise or ordinance.

Sect. 48. So much of this act as authorizes the submission of the acceptance of this charter to the electors of the city of Portland shall take effect as provided in the constitution of the state, but it shall not take further effect unless adopted by the electors of the city of Portland as hereinafter provided. If adopted by the electors of the city, then this act for the purpose of nominating and electing officers hereunder shall take effect on the date of its adoption by the electors, and for all other purposes this act shall take effect on the second Monday of December in the year nineteen hundred and thirty-one.

All provisions of the present charter of the city of Portland not inconsistent with this act are hereby expressly continued in full force and effect, but all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby expressly repealed.

Sect. 49. This act shall be submitted for approval or rejection to the qualified voters of the city of Portland at an election to be held the second Monday in September, A. D. nineteen hundred and thirty-one, and warrants shall be issued for such election in the manner now provided by law for the holding of municipal elections, notifying and warning the qualified voters of said city to meet at the several ward meetings of said city, there to cast their ballot for the approval or rejection of this act. The question proposed on said ballot shall be in substantially the following form:

FORM OF BALLOT

Otherwise said ballot shall be in the form provided by law when a constitutional amendment is submitted to the vote of the people. The provisions of law relating to the preparation of voting lists for municipal elections shall apply to such election and said election shall in all other respects be conducted as municipal elections in said city are now conducted by law, and the results thereof shall be determined in the manner now provided by law for the determination of the election of mayor. If a majority of the valid ballots deposited as aforesaid shall favor the adoption of plan two, so-called, on said ballot, then this act shall take effect as herein provided and the chairman of the city council shall forthwith make proclamation of the fact.
