AN ACT Relating to License for Carrying Weapons.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Licenses for carrying weapons. Section fourteen of chapter one hundred forty-two of the revised statutes is hereby amended by striking out the whole of said section and inserting in place thereof the following section:

'Sec. 14. License, how issued; fee. The chief of the state police shall issue, on receipt of a written application to be made on forms supplied by the said chief to all police department heads, and on receipt of a recommendation from the local police authorities as to the moral character of the applicant, a certificate setting forth that the applicant has been duly licensed to carry such weapon or weapons in this state. This license shall continue in effect until revoked by the chief of the state police. A license fee of one dollar shall accompany each application to be retained by the state highway police department.'
