STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-ONE

AN ACT to Regulate Fishing in Toothaker Pond and the Inlet and Outlet of said Toothaker Pond situated in the Town of Phillips, in the County of Franklin.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1. Fishing in Toothaker Pond regulated. It shall be unlawful for any person to fish for, take, catch or kill any kind of fish in Toothaker Pond, so-called, which pond is situated in the Town of Phillips in the County of Franklin, except in the ordinary manner of casting with unbaited, artificial flies, or by fly fishing, so-called.

Sec. 2. Daily limit fixed. It shall be unlawful for any person to take, catch and kill more than six fish in all in said Toothaker Pond in any one day. It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession in any one day more than six fish in all taken in said pond. No fish less than seven inches in length shall be taken from said pond.

Sec. 3. Fishing in inlet and outlet of Toothaker Pond to be regulated. It shall be unlawful for any person to take at any time any fish from the inlet of said Toothaker Pond between the rearing pool and said pond; and also it shall be unlawful for any person to take at any time any fish from said outlet of said Toothaker Pond between said pond and Sandy River.

Sec. 4. Penalties. Whoever violates any provision of this act shall pay a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than thirty dollars, and costs of prosecution, for each offense; and in addition thereto one dollar for each fish taken, caught, killed or had in possession in violation of any provision of this act.

Sec. 5. Jurisdiction of offenses granted to trial justices, police and municipal courts. In all prosecutions arising under this act, trial justices, police and municipal courts within their counties shall have, upon complaint, original and concurrent jurisdiction with the supreme judicial court, and superior courts.
