STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-ONE

AN ACT to Make Certain the Legal Boundaries of the Town of Old Orchard.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section one of chapter two hundred forty-eight of the laws of eighteen hundred eighty-three is hereby amended so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'All that part of the city of Saco lying within the following described lines and boundaries, namely; commencing at the easterly corner between the said city of Saco and the town of Scarborough; thence by the line between said city of Saco and said town of Scarborough northwesterly to a stone in the sea wall; thence north forty-two degrees and fifty-five minutes west, by a set line six hundred ninety-three rods, to a granite stone placed at a point where the line between said city of Saco and said town of Scarborough intersects with a line in the said city of Saco known as the Granger line; thence southerly, forty-seven degrees and twelve minutes west, eight hundred sixty-three and one-half rods, to a granite stone on the bank of Goose Fair brook in said city of Saco; thence southeasterly by said Goose Fair brook to the sea or to such distance as the city of Saco may have owned or controlled prior to February twentieth, eighteen hundred eighty-three; thence by the sea to the boundary first above named, with all the sea shore and flats and all other interests in said land lying between the medial line of said Goose Fair brook extended and said easterly corner of the city of Saco is hereby incorporated into a separate town by the name of Old Orchard and the inhabitants thereof are hereby invested with all the powers and privileges and are made subject to all the duties and liabilities incident to other towns within this state.'
