AN ACT Relating to the Construction and Maintenance of Bridges on State Highways.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

Section 1. Certain bridges to be cared for by the state. The construction, reconstruction, improvement and maintenance of all bridges on state highways, and all approaches thereto, shall be borne wholly by the state except in the cases of those bridges that lie within the compact portions of any city or town of over ten thousand inhabitants.

Sec. 2. Definition of state highway. For the purposes of this act state highways are defined to be those highways that have been and may in the future be so designated and built by the state highway commission and any highway necessary to connect any part or parts of any so designated state highways so as to make a continuous through way, but shall not include any way ordinarily designated as a state aid highway.

Sec. 3. Repealing clause. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed or amended so as to conform with the provisions of this act.
