STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-ONE

AN ACT Relating to Exemptions from Attachment.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Further exemption from attachment. Section sixty-seven of chapter ninety-five of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding to paragraph seven of said section the following words: 'and he shall also have exempt one motor truck or motor car not exceeding five hundred dollars in value used in the debtor's trade, business, occupation or profession,' so that said paragraph as amended shall read as follows:

'VII. One pair of working cattle, or instead thereof one pair of mules or one or two horses not exceeding in value three hundred dollars, and a sufficient quantity of hay to keep them through the winter season. If he has more than one pair of working cattle or mules, or if the two horses exceed in value three hundred dollars, he may elect which pair of cattle or mules or which horse shall be exempt. If he has a pair of mules or one or two horses so exempt, he may also have exempt for each of said horses or mules, one harness not exceeding twenty dollars in value; and one horse sled not exceeding the same value; but if he has at the same time an ox sled, he may elect which sled shall be exempt. And he shall also have exempt one motor truck or motor car not exceeding five hundred dollars in value used in the debtor's trade, business, occupation or profession.'
