STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-ONE

AN ACT Relating to Legal Holidays.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section seventy-seven of chapter ninety-one of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding to said section the following: 'When any one of the above named holidays falls on Sunday, the Monday following shall be observed as a holiday, with all the privileges applying to any of the days above named,' so that said section, as amended, shall read as follows:

'Sec. 77. No court shall be held on Sunday, or any day designated for the annual thanksgiving, or for the choice of presidential electors, Washington's birthday, February twenty-second, the nineteenth day of April, the thirtieth day of May, the fourth day of July, the first Monday of September, the day of the state election, Armistice day, November eleventh, or on Christmas day; and when the time fixed for a term of court falls on either of said days, it shall stand adjourned until the next day which shall be deemed the first day of the term for all purposes. The public offices in county buildings may be closed to business on the above named holidays. When any one of the above named holidays falls on Sunday, the Monday following shall be observed as a holiday, with all the privileges applying to any of the days above named.'
