AN ACT Relating to Taking of Smelts in Gouldsboro.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Section 1 of c. 46 of the public laws of 1929 amended. Section one of chapter forty-six of the public laws of nineteen hundred twenty-nine is hereby amended by inserting in the sixth line of said section after the word "harbor" the following words: 'and West Bay, West Bay Stream and Chicken Mill Stream, so called,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows:

'Section 1. Taking of smelts in certain tidal waters of Washington and Hancock counties regulated. No smelts shall be taken or fished for in the tidal waters of the towns of Addison, Columbia Falls, Harrington, Cherryfield, Milbridge and Steuben, all in the county of Washington, and so much of the tidal waters in the town of Gouldsboro and in the plantation number seven in the county of Hancock, bordering on Steuben Harbor and West Bay, West Bay Stream and Chicken Mill Stream, so called, except by hook and line from April first to October first of each year; except smelts may be taken from April first to May first of each year by hook and line, gill nets, and hand dip nets and brush weirs.'
