It shall be unlawful for any candidate or for any person, firm, association, committee, organization, or corporation, on behalf of a candidate or for the purpose of aiding the candidacy of any person, to make any expenditure or incur any liability, either for printing, publication, postage, clerk hire, newspaper advertising, renting of halls or other places, soliciting agents, hauling voters or any other act or thing calculated to induce or procure any person or persons to vote for any candidate for office in a primary election unless on the dates hereinafter set forth next ensuing after the making of any such expenditure or the incurring of any such liability such candidate, person, firm, association, committee, organization, or corporation shall report the same to the secretary of state setting forth in detail the nature and amount of the expenditure made or liability incurred with the name of the candidate, his address, the election district and the office in question. For such expenditures as are made and such liabilities as are incurred during the period prior to the thirty days next preceding any such election, such report shall be made by all candidates for office to be voted for in the state as a whole, or in any congressional district, on the first day of each month next after such expenditure is made or such liability is incurred, and thereafter such a report shall be made each week, such weekly reports to be made so as to reach the office of the secretary of state not later than ten o'clock in the forenoon of Wednesday in each week. In the case of candidates for representative to the legislature, or for any county office including state senators, such candidate shall make one report thirty days prior to the date of the election and a second report not later than ten o'clock in the forenoon of the Wednesday next preceding such election. The last report to be made in accordance with this provision, which shall reach the office of the secretary of state as aforesaid not later than ten o'clock in the forenoon on the Wednesday next preceding any such election, shall include in addition to such expenditures as have been made and such liabilities as have been incurred up to the time of the making of such report, a statement of such sum or sums, if any, as such candidate, person, firm, association, committee, organization, or corporation proposes to make or incur thereafter in connection with such campaign.

The secretary of state shall, twenty-five days before the date of any such election, publish in all the daily and weekly papers in the state a statement setting forth the total expenditures made in accordance with the information filed with him under the terms of the foregoing paragraph by any candidate, person, firm, association, committee, organization, or corporation giving for each office a list of the parties making such expenditures and the amounts thereof, which list shall for each office be arranged alphabetically except that the names of the candidates whose names are to appear on the ballots shall be first listed under each office. Said secretary of state shall revise and republish such figures in each of said papers fifteen days as near as may be before such election and again in the daily papers of the state on the Friday immediately preceding the Monday of any such primary election.

It shall be unlawful in the same manner as hereinbefore set forth for any person, firm, association, committee, organization, or corporation, on behalf of the candidacy of any person whose name is to be presented before any political convention as a candidate for any office, to make any expenditure or incur any liability for any of the purposes set forth in the first paragraph of this section unless seven days at least prior to the convening of any such convention the same shall be reported to the secretary of state in the same manner as above set forth for primary elections, and such report shall include in addition to such expenditures as have been made and such liabilities as have been incurred up to the time of the making thereof a statement of such sum or sums, if any, as the maker of such report proposes to make or incur thereafter in connection with such nomination.

The secretary of state shall, on the day before the convening of any political convention publish in all the daily papers in the state a statement setting forth the total expenditures made in accordance with the information filed with him under the terms of the foregoing paragraph in connection with each office for which a candidate is to be nominated at such convention and such list shall for each office be arranged alphabetically except that the names of the persons whose names are to be presented to such conventions as candidates shall be first listed under each office.

Any candidate, person, firm, association, committee, organization, or corporation which shall expend any money or incur any liability in excess of five dollars, without reporting it as above provided or who subsequent to the filing of said last report, either of primary election or political convention expenses, shall expend for any purpose aforesaid more than the amount or amounts set forth in such final pre-election reports, shall be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding eleven months.'

Sec. 3. Section four of chapter ten of the revised statutes is hereby repealed.
