AN ACT Providing for Special Terms of the Superior Court.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

R. S., c. 91, sec. 22; relating to simultaneous sessions, amended. Section 22 of chapter 91 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto the following, 'Special sessions of the superior court for the transaction of civil or criminal business or both may be held in any county at any time whenever the chief justice of the supreme judicial court determines that public convenience and necessity so require,' so that said section as amended shall read as follows :

'Sec. 22. Simultaneous and special sessions. Two or more simultaneous sessions of the superior court may be held in the same county, whenever the chief justice of the supreme judicial court determines that public convenience so requires; and the business may be so divided as to secure its speedy and convenient disposal. Special sessions of the superior court for the transaction of civil or criminal business or both may be held in any county at any time whenever the chief justice of the supreme judicial court determines that public convenience and necessity so require.'
