'Sec. 33. Treasurer of state to issue warrants for state tax annually; interest to run on unpaid taxes. The tax for each year shall be separately ordered and apportioned; and the amount of such proportion shall be stated in the warrants. On the 1st day of January, first occurring after any 1st day of December on which taxes are due to the state from cities, towns and plantations, interest at 6% shall begin to run on such unpaid balances as are due to the state.
