STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED THIRTY-FIVE

AN ACT relating to Notices by Assenting Employees.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 55, § 6, ¶ VI, amended. Subdivision VI of section 6 of chapter 55 of the revised statutes is hereby amended, so that the same shall read as follows: 'A notice in such form as the commission approves, stating that the employer has conformed to the provisions of this act, together with such further matter as the commission determines, shall be posted by the employer and kept posted by him at some place in each of his mills, factories, or places of business, conspicuous and accessible to his employees. For willful failure to post such notices, the employer shall be liable to a forfeiture of $10 for each day of such willful neglect, to be enforced by the commission in an action of debt in the name of the state. An employer ceasing to be insured shall, on or before the day on which his policy expires, give written or printed notice thereof to all persons under contract with him, and shall file a copy of said notice with the commission.'
