AN ACT Relating to Registration of Pleasure Cars by Paupers.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

Paupers not to obtain motor vehicle registration. No person shall be permitted to register an automobile (excepting trucks) if they have been receiving aid from a city, town, township, or plantation or the state or federal government for over a period of 4 months in each of the preceding 2 years, unless the local officials of his place of residence certify to the secretary of state that it will assist him in earning his livelihood. The local officials shall report to the secretary of state such persons who are hereunder ineligible to obtain such registration on or before December 1st of each year.
