AN ACT Relative to the Transportation of Fish Taken from Inland Waters.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 38, §§ 31, 32, 33, amended. Chapter 38 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by repealing sections 31, 32 and 33 and enacting in place thereof the following section to be numbered section 31:

'Sec. 31. Transportation of fish, regulated. Any person who is legally licensed to fish in the inland waters of Maine, may transport to his home in any one day the bag limit for 1 day, said bag limit being regulated by the daily bag limit on the waters in which said fish were taken, when open to view and in the possession of the person who caught said fish. Any person legally in possession of any fish, may once in 10 days offer one day's bag limit as above designated, to a common carrier for transportation to his home by purchasing of the commissioner or his agent a transportation tag paying therefor $1.00. The agent of said carrier shall indorse upon the back of the shipper's license in ink the following: the shipping point, date of shipment, weight and number of each kind of fish contained therein, and the destination. Such shipment shall have affixed, the license number and the kind and weight of fish contained therein, such agent shall refuse to accept any consignment of fish if it appears that the consignor is not entitled to make such shipment. Except that shipments of fish, legally in possession may be made as above under this section once per year from Rangeley Lake, Mooselucmeguntic Lake, Cupsuptic Lake, Richardson Lake, Upper and Richardson Lake, Lower and at any time from Moosehead Lake and all waters of Piscataquis county.'

Sec. 2. Inconsistent acts repealed. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.
