STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED THIRTY-FIVE

RESOLVE, Relative to Game Preserve in York County.

Game Preserve established in the towns of Limington and Hollis, in York county. Resolved: That for a period of 2 years from June 30, 1935 no person shall, except as herein provided, at any time, hunt, pursue, shoot at, molest or kill any wild animal or any game or wild bird within the following described territory situated in the towns of Limington and Hollis in York county: beginning at a point where the Little Ossipee River joins the Saco river in the town of Limington, thence westerly and southerly along said Little Ossipee river to the highway of Edgecomb's bridge, so-called, thence southerly and easterly along said highway to North Hollis in the town of Hollis, thence easterly and northerly along the road next west of Killick brook to the road leading from Nasons Mills to Bonny Eagle, thence northerly and easterly along said Bonny Eagle road to the town line between Limington and Hollis, thence northerly along said town line to the Saco river, thence northerly and westerly along said Saco river to the point of beginning; and that it shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any wild bird or wild animal taken in violation of any provision herein.

The provisions herein shall not prohibit the commissioner of inland fisheries and game from regulating the taking of fur-bearing animals and vermin thereon.

Whoever violates any provisions hereof shall be subject to the penalty of section 107 of chapter 38 of the revised statutes as amended.
