Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Date of town meetings. On and after the passage of this act and its adoption by the town as hereinafter provided, annual town meetings shall be held in the town of Richmond, in the county of Sagadahoc, on the 1st Monday of March in each year, and the voters shall then choose by ballot, as now provided by law, a moderator.

Sec. 2. Election of officers. At such meetings the voters shall choose by ballot a member or members of the council as hereinafter provided, who shall be inhabitants of the town, a town clerk, and a member of the superintending school committee to serve for 3 years. The present members of the superintending school committee shall serve until the expiration of their present terms, and during the balance of their respective terms of office, together with the new member or members chosen in accordance with this act, shall constitute the superintending school committee of said town.

At the 1st meeting of the town held under the provisions of this act, 5 councillors shall be chosen, who shall be residents of the town of Richmond, the 5 candidates receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected as councillors, the councillors so elected, shall at their 1st meeting choose by lot, 2 members of the council to serve for 1 year; 2 for 2 years, and 1 for 3 years, and thereafter at each of said annual meetings 2 councillors shall be chosen, each for a term of 3 years, provided however that in each 3rd year but 1 councillor shall be chosen, and provided further that vacancies in the office of councillor, due to death, resignation or other cause, shall be filled at the next annual meeting for the unexpired term.

The council shall select annually a town treasurer and a tax collector; once in 3 years a health officer, subject to the approval of the director of health as now provided by general law; and when a vacancy exists shall select a town manager, with duties hereinafter provided, for a term not to exceed 3 years. Except as hereinafter provided, all other necessary town officers provided by this act or now or hereafter provided under any statute or by-law shall be appointed by the town manager, subject to the approval of the majority of the council.

Sec. 3. Councillors serve ex officio as certain officers. The councillors provided for in section 2 shall serve instead of selectmen, overseers of the poor and assessors of taxes provided for by general statutes and shall have the same powers and be subject to the same duties.

Sec. 4. Organization meeting. The council elected as herein provided shall meet within 24 hours after its election and shall choose by ballot 1 of its members to be chairman for the ensuing year and until his successor is elected and qualified. If the chairman fail from sickness, disability or absence from the town or other cause to attend to and perform the duties incumbent on him as such chairman, the remaining members of the council may, by unanimous vote, after notice and hearing, terminate the term of office of the said chairman, and by majority vote elect some other member of the council as chairman, who shall serve for the balance of the year or until his successor is elected and qualified. The town clerk shall act as secretary to the council, and shall record in the town records the choice of the

The superintending school committee, constituted or elected as herein provided, shall have the same powers in relation to the schools of said town as now provided by statute and shall be subject to the same duties in relation thereto.
