STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
THIRTY-SEVEN

AN ACT Relating to Pension for State Employees.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1933, c. 1, § 227, amended. Section 227 of chapter 1 of the public laws of 1933, as amended by chapter 117 of the public laws of 1935, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 227. How retirement may be recommended. The superintendent of any state institution and the head of any state department may recommend the retirement from active service and the placing upon a pension roll, any employee who has been employed in any 1 or more of the state institutions, departments of this state, or by the legislature with a good record for the term of 25 years or more; or has attained the age of ~~70~~ 65 years and has been so employed with a good record for 20 years; or the governor and council may recommend the retirement from active service and the placing upon such a roll one who has served as an official, including officers of either branch of the legislature, or for part of the time as an official and a part of the time as an employee, and such official or employee shall be so retired and pensioned.'
