STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
THIRTY-SEVEN

RESOLVE, Relating to the Protection of Clams within the Town of Freeport.

Protection of clams in town of Freeport. Resolved: That the commissioner of sea and shore fisheries be, and hereby is, directed to repeal rule and regulation numbered 14, and to issue the following rule and regulation:

‘No shellfish or worms shall be taken from any flats within the limits of the town of Freeport, in Cumberland county, except by written permit of the municipal officers of the said town of Freeport, and payment to the said town for the privilege at such price as said town may establish at any town meeting; provided, that without such permit, any inhabitant within said town, or any person temporarily resident therein, or the riparian owner of any such flats, may take therefrom for the immediate use of himself or his family, not exceeding 1 bushel of clams at one tide.

‘Any person taking shellfish or worms contrary to the provisions hereof, shall be punished for each offense by a fine not exceeding $10, or by imprisonment for not exceeding 30 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.’
