AN ACT Relating to Annual State Pension.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Annual pension provided for. Every resident of the state of Maine, who has lived in said state, continuously, for more than 25 years, and who is a citizen of the United States, and who has never been convicted of a felony, shall, upon reaching the age of 70, and being unable to earn a livelihood, through age or infirmity, and who has no property or means, sufficient for their support, shall receive an annual pension of $50 per month, to be paid quarterly, from the treasury of the state of Maine.
