IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
THIRTY-SEVEN

AN ACT Relating to Licenses and Certificates for Selling Clams.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1933, c. 208, § 2, amended. Section 2 of chapter 208 of the public laws of 1933, as amended by section 2 of chapter 119 of the public laws of 1935, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

'Certificates; how issued, application for, fee for. Application for license shall be made by applicants on blanks furnished by the commissioner of sea and shore fisheries. Each application for license must be signed by the applicant, and must show the exact name of the locality from which clams are to be dug or taken, the location of the shucking house or principal place of business of the person, firm, or corporation making the application. The license fee shall be $5 for each license or renewal thereof. If the commissioner of sea and shore fisheries approves the application, he may issue to the applicant a license; such license shall be numbered, and shall state the name, the address, the principal place of business of the person, firm, or corporation to whom the license is issued, and also the area, designated by local name, and number, from which clams can be dug and sold as covered by the license granted. Said license shall run ~~for the current year until the 1st day of June following date of application,~~ from the 1st day of October until the 15th day of the following May, on which date it shall terminate, unless sooner revoked as herein provided, and it shall be renewed annually thereafter.

'Application for certificate shall be made by applicants on blanks furnished by the commissioner of agriculture. Each application for certificate must be signed by the applicant and must show the exact name of the locality from which clams, quahaugs or mussels are to be dug or taken, the location of the shucking house if one is maintained and the principal place of business within the state of the person, firm or corporation making the application, and the names of all persons digging clams, quahaugs and mussels for the applicant. If the commissioner of agriculture approves the application he may issue the applicant a certificate. Such certificate shall bear the same number as the license of the commissioner of sea and shore fisheries, and shall designate by local name the area from which the clams, quahaugs, or mussels can be dug and sold. Said certificate shall run ~~for the current year until the 1st day of June following date of application,~~ from the 1st day of October until the 15th day of the following May, on which date it shall terminate, unless the license of said applicant has been revoked, and it shall be renewed annually thereafter.'
