Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

P. L., 1935, c. 192, § 14, amended. Sub-section (d) of section 14 of chapter 192 of public laws of 1935 is hereby amended to read as follows :

‘(d) Refunds. If not later than + 4 years after the date on which any contributions or interest thereon become due, an employer who has paid such contributions or interest thereon shall make application for an adjustment thereof in connection with subsequent contribution payments, or for a refund thereof because such adjustment cannot be made, and if the commission shall determine that such contributions, or interest or any portion thereof was erroneously collected, the commission shall allow such employer to make an adjustment thereof, without interest, in connection with subsequent contribution payments by him, or if such adjustment cannot be made the commission shall refund said amount, without interest, from the fund. For like cause and within the same period, adjustment or refund may be so made on the commission’s own initiative. Provided however that any such adjustment or refund, involving contributions upon the basis of which benefits have been paid for unemployment, shall be reduced by the amount of benefits so paid.’
