AN ACT Relating to the Probation Officer for the County of Cumberland.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1905, c. 346, amended. Chapter 346 of the private and special laws of 1905 is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof 2 new sections to be numbered section 10 and section 11 and to read as follows:

'Sec. 10. Execution of sentence at any term of court, or in vacation. The probation officer may bring any respondent placed in his custody by a justice of the superior court who has violated the terms of his probation before said court, at any term, civil or criminal, or in vacation, and any justice of said court upon being satisfied of the facts, may order the respondent to forthwith comply with the original sentence. If the cause had been continued for sentence, the justice of said court may, either in term or in vacation, impose sentence.'

'Sec. 11. Probation officer to be officer in all courts of the county. The probation officers provided for in this chapter shall serve as probation officers for all of the courts in the county of Cumberland. The judges of all the municipal courts in the county of Cumberland shall have the same powers and authority as are granted to the judge of the municipal court for the city of Portland by this chapter, excepting the power and authority to appoint and remove said probation officer and his assistants. Said probation officers shall perform the same duties and have the same authority concerning persons committed to their care by any of the municipal courts within said county of Cumberland as is granted to them over persons placed in their care by the judge of the municipal court for the city of Portland. The expenses necessary or expedient for the supervision of persons placed in the care of said probation officers by any of the courts except the municipal court for the city of Portland and the superior court and for the other additional duties required of them by this section, shall be paid out of the county treasury of the county of Cumberland upon approval by the county commissioners thereof, in addition to the expenses of said probation officers otherwise provided for by this chapter.'
