IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
THIRTY-NINE

AN ACT Relative to Game Preserve in York County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 38, § 90, amended. Section 90 of chapter 38 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended by adding thereto, after the second paragraph thereof, the following:

‘Limington, Hollis and Waterboro: That for a period of 2 years from June 30, 1939, no person shall, except as herein provided, at any time, hunt, pursue, shoot at, molest or kill any wild animal or wild bird within the following described territory situated in the towns of Limington, Hollis and Waterboro in York County; beginning at a point where the Little Ossipee river joins the Saco river in the town of Limington, thence westerly and southerly along said Little Ossipee river to the highway at Edgcombs bridge, so-called, in Waterboro, thence southerly and easterly along said highway to North Hollis in the town of Hollis, thence easterly and northerly along the road next west of Killick brook to the road leading from Nason Mills to Bonney Eagle, thence northeasterly along said Bonney Eagle road to the town line between Limington and Hollis, thence northerly along said town line to the Saco river, thence northerly along said Saco river to the point of beginning.

The provisions of this act shall not prohibit the commissioner of inland fisheries from regulating the taking of fur-bearing animals thereon.

It shall also be unlawful for any person to have in possession at any time any wild bird or wild animal taken in violation of any provision of this act.'
