AN ACT Relating to the Expenditure of Highway Funds.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

Highway funds may be used to match federal funds for work projects. Upon application of the municipal officers of any city, town or plantation, the state highway commission may permit, subject to the provisions of the statutes governing the allocation of highway funds to municipalities and the expenditure of same, such city, town or plantation to expend highway funds made available by the state to such municipality to match federal funds in the sponsoring of work projects for the improvement and construction of ways and bridges in such city, town or plantation; provided, nevertheless, that nothing in this act shall be construed as authorizing the state highway commission or the municipal officers of any city, town or plantation to ignore or disregard an express authorization from the legislature in regard to the use of any funds for any expressly designated purpose.
