STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-ONE

AN ACT Relating to the Resignation of Attorneys at Law.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

P. L., 1939, c. 54, amended. Chapter 54 of the public laws of 1939 is hereby amended to read as follows :

‘Provision for resignation of attorneys. Any member of the bar of the state of Maine may resign from the office of attorney and counsellor at law by submitting his resignation to any justice of the supreme judicial court who may or may not, in his discretion, in the name of the state of Maine accept such resignation and order that such attorney’s name be stricken from the roll of attorneys of the state. No person whose resignation from his office of attorney and counsellor at law has been accepted by a justice of the supreme judicial court, as aforesaid, shall be re-admitted to the practice of law in any of the courts of the state of Maine or entitled to practice law within said state unless and until he shall have been reinstated as an attorney and counsellor at law or readmitted to the practice of law in any of the courts of the state of Maine. by a justice of the supreme judicial court. The procedure for such reinstatement shall be the same as in the case of attorneys who have been disbarred.’
