STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-ONE

AN ACT Relating to Bond of Innkeepers, Victualers and Lodging-Houses.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 36, § 2, amended. Section 2 of chapter 36 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

“Sec. 2. Bond. ~~No person shall receive his license until he has given his bond to the treasurer~~ The mayor and board of aldermen of any city, or the selectmen of any town, may require a person before he receives his license to give his bond to the treasurer, to the acceptance of the board granting it, with one or more sureties in the penal sum of $300, in substance as follows: namely:

“Know all men that we, as principal, and, and, as sureties, are held and stand firmly bound to, treasurer of the town” (or city) “of, in the sum of three hundred dollars, to be paid to him, or his successor in said office; to the payment whereof we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors and administrators, jointly and severally by these presents. Sealed with our seals. Dated the day of, in the year nineteen hundred and

“The condition of this obligation is such that, whereas the above bounden has been duly licensed as a within said town” (or city) “until the day succeeding the first Monday of May next; now if in all respects he shall conform to the provisions of law relating to the business for which he is licensed, and to the rules and regulations as provided by the licensing board in reference thereto, and shall not violate any law of the state relating to intoxicating liquors, then this obligation shall be void, otherwise shall remain in full force.”’
